

Cancun Non-Stop.

We think a more direct approach with New Yorkers works best.

O.k. so here's the deal: Now you can fly to Cancun from JFK on any one of five non-stops Mexicana offers every Monday through Friday. For just $845 round-trip. Think about it. In just four hours, you can be surrounded by warm blue ocean, sparkling white sand and all the ice cold cerveza you can down. So pick up a phone. Call 1-800-OFF-2-MEX. Pack up a suitcase. Go already. With low fares and direct flights like these, you're not going to spend another vacation snowed in somewhere in the Catskills? Well, are you?
